

SUMMARY

Passionate and multilingual English teacher with over 4 years of experience teaching both online and in person at various schools in Kyrgyzstan. Proficient in Arabic and Turkish, I have dedicated my career to fostering communication and bridging cultural differences through language education. My teaching philosophy emphasizes the importance of reading and writing as tools to promote critical thinking skills among students. Now, as a recent graduate of a Master's program, I am keen on applying my newly acquired knowledge and skills. Continually motivated to develop and enhance my abilities, I have augmented my education with participation in both online and in-person courses aimed at refining my teaching techniques. Upholding my unique blend of linguistic expertise and commitment to professional growth, I continue to strive to create engaging and enriching learning experiences for my students.
